COMPLIMENTARY TO GENERAL CONNOR.

Fort Laramie, October 3, 1865.
UNION VEDETTE—Major-Gen. Dodge has officially congratulated General Connor upon his success, and tendered his thanks to him and his command, for the fortitude shown under trying circumstances and hardships.

American Progress.

The last four years have fully impressed the world with the conviction that American affairs are not to be judged by precedents in our own or other countries. We have achieved so many "impossibilities," that we have a right to assert that in our vocabulary "there is no such word as fail." We have only to be true to ourselves, just, wise and faithful to our destiny, to secure for the nation a future as brilliant and triumphant as her past history. Our citizens abound in energy, intellect and wealth, and the war proved that beneath the crust of peaceful industry inexhaustible heroism was always slumbering ready for instant service whenever an exigency shall demand its exercise. While the struggle of rebellion was at its height, the ordinary business pursuits of the of the North were prosecuted with a degree of activity and zeal never exceeded before. The Government set the example in authorizing and assisting, in the midst of its severest financial straits, the construction of the Pacific Railway, a national thoroughfare that will revolutionize the whole course of commerce and hasten the development of our mineral wealth; and in completing great public buildings, whose constructions had pinned for years. The people caught the same spirit, and, organizing trade and business on almost an entirely new basis, greatly increased the productive capacity of their ordinary establishments, and opened up entirely new sources of vast wealth in the petroleum and in the rich Gold and Silver mines of these Western Territories. Now that peace is restored, there is a natural depression in those pursuits which were dependent upon military necessities; but the foundations are being laid for future industrial operations of the most profitable character. The Southern States are slowly, but surely preparing to supply crops of sugar, cotton, rice and tobacco. Northern farms are with the assistance of the labor of our distanced soldiers being put into the best possible order. Manufacturers are looking confidently to the nation for such protection as will enable them to compete with foreign rivals. American commerce since the ocean has been cleared from privateers is rapidly gaining its old position. A vast tide of emigration is rolling Westward to found new Republics, and to extract mineral treasures that will exceed in value the products of any other age or country. The Pacific Railway is no longer an imaginary object but a living reality. In a very brief period, the whole route from San Francisco to Nevada will be completed and it is confidently predicted that in less than four years the Eastern sections will be extended to Colorado. As the smoke of battle clears away, the American people are getting a distinct idea of what next is to be done and with characteristic promptitude action speedily follows resolution. In a short time all the energy that achieved victory for our brave generals and wise statesmen, will be turned actively and effectively into the important and remunerative channels of peaceful industry and then we shall again astonish the world by our capacity for agriculture, manufactures, commerce and mining, and advance in wealth with a rapidity for which past experience furnishes no precedent.

PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

(SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UTAH TERRITORIAL.)

New York, October 2.

The Herald's special says, about the middle of September, Gen. Baker received information of a plot at Lynchburg, Va., to rob the Post Quartermaster's safe of a large amount of money. The case was worked up and has resulted in the arrest last night of Brevet Brig. Gen. J. C. Briscoe, of the 100th Pennsylvania Volunteers, commanding the post at Lynchburg, and W. Sackey, of Worcester, Mass., formerly Sutter at that post. Gen. Briscoe, is an Irishman by birth, and has been in command of the post at Lynchburg, since Lee's surrender. Capt. Alberger has been Quartermaster at Lynchburg, and had in his charge on the 21st of Sept., $120,000 in greenbacks, besides a large amount of captured gold coin and bullion, which had been placed in his charge for safe keeping. Briscoe approached Alberger through Sackey, and proposed to him as the war was about to close, and none of them had made money out of it, they should make a grand haul, and in concert pocket fifty thousand dollars apiece. Alberger kept the funds in a safe which formerly belonged to a rebel officer. This fact would give color to the charge which was to be made, that the rebel having a duplicate key to the safe had robbed it. Briscoe was to arrest the Quartermaster, his clerks and half the people of Lynchburg, to avoid suspicion, and took an impression of the safe key in wax, and sent Sackey to Philadelphia to get the key made. Alberger, ostensibly in the plot, informed the Secretary of War, and two of Gen. Baker's officers were sent down to Lynchburg, to arrest the guilty parties. These officers saw, through the holes in the ceiling of the office, General Briscoe come in, while the Quartermaster and his clerks had gone to dinner, and saw him unlock the safe with a false key and take out three packages of greenbacks, of forty thousand each, and load himself down with coin and bullion to the amount of $150,000, having previously ignited saturated paper and cloth with a view to burn the office. They followed him across the hall of his office, and burst in on him, counting and taking the money behind his bolted door. Wax moulds and false keys were found upon him and proof was indisputable. These proofs are now in General Baker's possession. Briscoe and Sackey are in the Old Capital prison awaiting trial.

Colonel Simpson, of the Engineer corps, who is specially detailed for service in the Department of the Interior, left here a few days ago, for a tour of inspection over forty miles of the route of the Kansas branch of the Pacific Railroad. Advice from Charleston of the 29th of September, says South Carolina Convention passed the Constitution with some slight amendments. The Convention adjourned on the 26th. By the Constitution, the right of voting is given to every white man of full age, who has been two years a citizen of the State and who is not a pauper, nor now a commissioned officer, or a private soldier in the army, nor a seaman, nor a marine of the navy of the United States. The amendment introduced, confines the right to vote upon the European emigrants who have declared their intention of becoming citizens two years previous to the day of election, and who have resided six months in the election district. The election of Governor, Lieut. Governor, will be held in conjunction with the election to the general assembly, on the third Wednesday of the present month. A request was signed by all the members of the Convention to induce Col. J. L. Orr, to announce himself a candidate.

Further details respecting the war in South America, says the Paraguayans are actively pushing forward, while the allied forces remained motionless; but was concentrated at Concordia, waiting an attack.

The Brazilian fleet on the Parana river commenced a retrograde movement, fearing that the Paraguayans would construct batteries below, so to gain command of the river. The magnitude of this struggle is assuming, may be estimated from the fact, that at the latest of our advices, there were one hundred and thirteen thousand men under arms, of whom fifty six thousand were Paraguayans, fifty-seven thousand allies.

Three American vessels were injured during the late gale at Montevideo, the bark Edith Ross losing three sailors. Maximilian's Consul, of this city, has made public a proclamation of his government, repudiating President Juarez, and all his deeds, declaring, of course, that it will not be held responsible for his conduct.

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.
Quite a sensation was produced at St. Marks Episcopal Church, in this city, yesterday, by the appearance of Rev. Dr. Wilmer in church. Dr. Wilmer was pastor of the church before the war, but his secession proclivities induced him to leave and go South, with a large amount of baggage, which was detained at Fort Monroe by the government. The Rev. Dr. appeared in church to assist in celebrating the holy communion service. This was a signal for a large portion of the congregation to leave the church in disgust.

St. Louis, Oct. 2.
A special from Lawrence, Kansas, to the Democrat, says, Col. John A. Sargent, of the Southern Indians, has made an important treaty with the Osage Indians, at their council grounds, one hundred miles south of here. The Osage cede about one million acres of land, for which the government pays $300,000. About two millions of acres have also been ceded from the north side of their reservation, to be sold in trust to the Indians. All these lands, which are in Kansas, and the rights of settlers and the heads of families on them, are protected by the treaty.

New York, Oct. 2.
The Post's special says, it is understood that orders will be issued in a few days to disband the veteran reserve corps. The regular army is now actively recruited to take the place of this corps.

The case of Ketchum was to come before the General Sessions to-day, but was postponed until next Monday, on motion of the District Attorney. A panel of one thousand jurors is ordered, and notices is given that further postponement will be opposed by him.

THE DAILY UNION-VEDETTE
SPECIAL TO THE DAILY VEDETTE

New York, Oct. 2.
The Times of today says, the steamers City of Boston and Erin, which sailed from this port on Saturday, are said to have taken out a million dollars in bonds, for the use of the Republic of Ireland.
It is currently reported that as soon as these bonds reach Ireland, matters will assume a more definite form.
The bonds are said to be spread abroad and cast throughout the land, so well guarded, in every sense, that there is no possibility of the British Government obtaining the documents or interfering with the plan. It is claimed that the bonds have nearly all been subscribed by many people whom the government has not been able to reach. On the other hand, the British Government claim to have knowledge of all the bonds and have an agent on board the steamers in question, who will at the proper time seize and turn them over to the Home Government.
The bonds are said to be of these states, and the government is searching before going to Queenstown, at least before any passengers, or freight is allowed to land; war vessels are by this time stationed at Queenstown for this express purpose.

New York, Oct. 2.
Col. Jos. I. Orr has accepted the nomination of Governor of South Carolina.
The election of W. W. Anderson as a member of the United States House of Representatives, met with unequalled success in Europe. Donald McKay is making arrangements with the British government for use in their harbors.

Atchison, Kas., Oct. 2.
Holladay's Overland Mail route is now entirely free of Indians, and stages are arriving on fast time, six days from Colorado, eleven days from Utah, thirteen from Nevada, fifteen from Idaho and Montana, and eighteen from California.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 2.
Sufficient returns are received to show the majority against the constitutional amendment to be voted on there. Thirty-three towns gave 2,500 against the amendment.

Be tried to soften music, when
Of love and peace thou'rt sweetly singing;
But diamond be thy point, my pen,
When critics' darts are round thee ring.

CHAIRMAN Ashley is in Nevada State, coming to see that his silver-ware shop will be his.

Nor Him.—The chap that threatened to arrest us for giving him a blow in the paper, is not brother Goff, next to Siegler, but "another man!"

An engagement between Indians and Capt. Powell's command, took place a couple of weeks ago, near the mouth of Fort Boise. The red-skins were routed, and one white man wounded.

STILL THEY COME—from all quarters but especially the territories surrounding—subscriptions to the VEDETTE. Last mail from Montana brought us twenty five, in one batch.

When those merchants get all their goods opened, and their shops brought out—"to the front"—look out for lively advertisements. A couple of columns "new" every day or so, please the printers amazingly! Verbum sal!

We are pleased to notice that Mr. Jas. O'Donnell, of Co. "E," 2d Cav. C. V., and clerk to the A. C. M. of this District, has secured a situation in the Q. M. Department at this post. He will enter upon the duties of his appointment immediately after his muster-out of service, which takes place on the 13th of the present month.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS from Messrs. Barrow & Co., Wilkinson & Co., Heller & Snyder, Gurney & Co., (Wm. Sloan.) and others, are being "set up," to appear in our columns. Now is the accepted time, and now is the day of selling to those parties from afar. There's room still left for a few more eighth and quarter columns, so send them on.

Mr. J. BOLGER and family left Camp Douglas this morning, per eastern coach, for New York City. Mr. Bolger has, for a long time, filled the appointment of Forage Master in the Q. M. Department of this District, with credit and ability. He will return from N. York in a month or two, to Denver, where he will receive appointment under Capt. Westbrook, Chief Quartermaster of Major General Wheaton's staff.

IDAHO ITEMS.—Cram & Ellsworth have taken possession of the Grand House, Boise City, and are going to "keep hotel" as it is called. By the Statesman we see that one V. R. Fuller, of Boise City, was married to Miss Mary E. Nash, of said city, on the 26th. The boy took a notion to make Miss Nash, Fuller, it seems, so, sensibly, went about it in the legitimate way. The Robinson family are playing to full houses in Boise City. Mining is carried on successfully, this season, at Idaho City, and the creeks adjoining. Messrs. Malbewson & Ingersoll are working about ninety hands, and cleaning up from three to four thousand dollars every twenty-four hours, on Moore's creek. Friend & Allen's, and other claimants, are working on the same creek, and cleaning up from three to four thousand dollars every twenty-four hours, on Moore's creek. Friend & Allen's, and other claimants, are working on the same creek, and cleaning up from three to four thousand dollars every twenty-four hours, on Moore's creek.

Two More "Road Agents" Elevated.
Private letters from Virginia City, Montana, dated the 28th, contain more of that class called "road agents" were upon sufficient evidence of their murdering or robbing "virtues"—"elevated" as they are called—were elevated to the rank of "road agents" and they sailed under the name of Jackson and Morgan, but their right names were Jones and Collins.

FROM GEN'L HUGHES AND COL. JOHNS.—
From the 22d ult., we learn that Gen. Bela M. Hughes, with his troops, and his two companies of troops had arrived at the Hot Springs, in the Park, and were expected in Central and Denver soon after. Gen. Hughes wrote that he can drive a buggy from the Hot Springs to Salt Lake without any difficulty, save one "cut" in the West. The road is now open, and that cannot be done before next season. The Journal adds: Gen. Holladay and Gen. Hughes are entitled to credit for opening the very interesting country west of us. The route of the route will soon be lined with white settlements, and its resources, such as they are, developed.

RAIN! RAIN!—Yesterday afternoon and the evening previous were capital times for the Saints to sell their hay; it showered, or rather rained—"pouring down" as the saying is, for hours. In contradistinction to the clouds of dust along the streets, and the parched condition of the plains around, the liberal rains of the past two days were decidedly refreshing, and were religiously enjoyed, of course, by all about here, and by those possessing patches of fields and garden patches, in particular. Pluvius, the god of showers, seemed to have opened his heart more liberally and largely over "Zion" and surroundings, than during several seasons past. The "rain" of yesterday afternoon turned to a tremendous shower of hail stones, though; with each of 'em as large as bird's eggs. Great crops of this: hot as h—igh fever in the morning and perhaps cold as the de—ath pulse before noon!

From San Francisco.
SAN FRANCISCO, September 27.
Cooke performed the great tight-rope feat to-day at the Cliff House. Five thousand persons were present.

A portion of the new telegraph line between San Jose and Placerville will be finished in three months. Workmen commenced work on it to-day.

The Bank of California has reduced its rate of interest to one per cent.

The Flag states that $500,000 has been added to the sum returned for National taxation by the discovery of frauds in the returns of merchants and others, and intimates that if properly investigated, it could be increased to $1,000,000.

The different lodges of Odd Fellows, of this city, have purchased a tract of land near Lone Mountain, and this morning incorporated the Odd Fellows Cemetery Association.

Greenbacks are quoted 74.

The Theatre (Full) season will open here to-morrow evening, with the "School for Scandal," and with Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne as the "star of the evening, etc." Supported by the strength of the stock company and Mr. Walden, this lady's "Lady Teazle" will undoubtedly tear all to admiration and applause. Few finer plays, for extra elegance of diction and display of wit, are to be found, in the whole range of modern drama, than this standard comedy by Richard Brinsley Sheridan, the famous Irish writer, and wit. It is not so much an "acting" as a "speaking" play, and a "piece" which, to "speak right," calls for great genius and culture, controlling and correct, not a play to be pronounced as one would read an almanac or peruse a dictionary, but rather one which wants its actors, enbrained as well as embodied, to now, match to the music of the flute, and now, prance to the pipe of Phoebeus.

Treasury Department,
Office of Comptroller of the Currency
Washington, June 23d, 1885.
WHEREAS by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "The First National Bank of Nevada," in the City of Austin, in the County of Lander, and State of Nevada, has been duly organized under and according to the requirements of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide a National Currency, issued by a pledge of U. S. bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 2d, 1864, and has complied with all the provisions of said Act required to be complied with before commencing business, under said Act.
Now therefore I, Freeman Clarke, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that the First National Bank of Nevada, in the City of Austin, in the County of Lander, and State of Nevada, is authorized to commence the business of banking, and to issue and circulate its currency, under and according to the provisions of said Act.
In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office, this twenty-third day of June, 1885.
F. CLARKE
[No. 1331] Comptroller of the Currency.
